formed, overcoming poverty, worry the laws of geometry and time.

Much progress in human intelli-day. To hold the emperor's favor, Kepler had to tell the imperial fortune and pretend to predict the future by astrology, which he knew was nonsense.

And even the great Tycho Brahe, who mapped the heavens without a telescope and took Kepler for his assistant when Kepler was 29, had superstitions. He kept with him an idol, that crouched at his bedside, eating scraps thrown him.

And when the idol uttered meaningless sounds, Tycho Brahe caused all his other guests to be silent, believing that the idol's talk was inspired.

There is a good deal of science talk, so-called, today that might well have been uttered by Tycho Brahe's idol. Some of it refers to time that began at a certain point in the past" and some of it drifts about space that curves on itself, and is, therefore, curvilinear.

PAL OF YOUTH
TESTIFIES IN MURDER TRIAL

John Johnson Says He and Companion Had Been Drinking Oct. 25.

STICKS TO FIRST STORY

Widow of Slain Kenton Man Also To Be Called to Stand by State.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR
KENTON, Nov. 28.—James Willis, 21, on trial in common pleas court here charged with murder in connection with the death of George L. Ansley, today heard his pal relate details of events leading up to the shooting.

John Johnson, 34, told the jury that he and Willis had been drinking the afternoon and night of Oct.
25, preceding the shooting. He said that Willis was considerably intoxicated. He noticed that Willis acted peculiar during the day and the defendant spoke often of his "love for Lucille," the daughter of the slain man.

Johnson stuck to his original story that Willis forced him to drive down to the Ansley home here the morning of Oct. 26 and later to enter the house. He said that Willis had a revolver.

The witness was indicted by the grand jury charged with entering an inhabited dwelling in the night season. He said that he had not been offered any consideration for testifying for the state.

Johnson was the first witness called by the state this morning.
When court recessed at noon he was still on the stand with the defense counsel conducting a severe cross-examination. His appearance in court probably will take most of the afternoon.

Three witnesses remain to be called by the state. One is Mrs.
Ansley, widow of the slain man.
Eight state witnesses had completed their testimony before court adjourned late Wednesday for over Thanksgiving. They included surgeons who attended Ansley before his death and Sheriff Morton Ansley, brother of the gun victim.

Exhibits Introduced
The revolver, a .32 caliber Colt automatic, alleged used in the shooting and two bullets taken from the body of Ansley were introduced in evidence and entered as state exhibits.

Alienists will testify for both sides as a result of Willis' plea of not guilty by reason of insanity.
Witnesses who appeared Wednesday afternoon were Marshal G. Porter, of the undertaking firm of Dingess & Porter and in whose ambulance Ansley was removed to Mc-Kirtick hospital; Dr. R. G. Schutte, Dr. D. C. Fox and Dr. R. C. Mc-Neill, who attended Ansley and Dr.
D. Emmett Johnson, Hardin county coroner who was called following Ansley's death and who directed a post mortem examination.

Sheriff on Stand Sheriff Morton Ansley and his son-in-law, Mardo Williams, also testified. They were the first officials summoned to the Ansley home after the shooting.

They told of aiding the family in summoning medical aid for the wounded man and in removing him to the hospital and of finding the revolver lying on the floor near the door leading into one of the upstairs rooms. The gun, they his assailant for half a mile before the tracks were obliterated in fall-

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Because of testimony as to corruption, demands went to Governor Roosevelt today for a non-partisan, legislative investigation of the city administration.

Norman Thomas, leader of the Socialist party, and Paul Blannhard, secretary of the city affairs committee, a civilian organization, have written the governor at Warm Springs, Ga.

Declaring that "our city government is shot through and through with corruption," Blannhard in his letter referred to evidence of sale of positions on the bench and police graft for vice.

A "blue-ribbon jury" was discharged yesterday when it failed to return a verdict in the trial of Martin J. Healy and Thomas T.
Tommany, former city employees and tammany figures, charged with accepting a $10,000 bribe to secure the appointment of George F.
Ewald as magistrate in 1927. The date for their retrial was set for Dec. 8.

Norman Thomas, mentioned in the foregoing dispatch, is a former

SALE OF CHRISTMAS
SEALS UNDER WAY

Generous Contributor Pays $25 for 1,000 Seals as Drive Begins.

Although letters inaugurating the Marion county Christmas seal drive were mailed out only Wednesday night, one recipient today sent in a check of $25 as his contribution to the fund. It was announced today by Dr. F. E. Mahla, president of the Marion County Anti-Tuberculosis league, which is sponsoring the sale.

The $25 was $15 above the amount of seals sent the donor, Dr. Mahla said. Several other smaller checks came in today and none was below the amount requested of the sender.

The league Wednesday night mailed out 3,500 letters to Marion county persons. A total of 700,000 stamps are being offered for sale by the organization and if all are sold the fund will reach $7,000, since each stamp sells for one cent.

Purpose of the drive is to raise funds for the employment in 1931 of a Marion county tuberculosis nurse whose duties will be not only to care for cases now on record but also to investigate other possible cases and to care for them accordingly. The nurse, if sufficient funds are raised to employ her, will handle cases in both the city and county.

FAMILY OF FOUR
FOUND SLAIN

N. Y. Parents, Daughter, Son
Stabbed by Unknown
Assailant.

By The Associated Press
POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., (Nov.
28)—A family of four, residing on a farm near Stamford, was found stabbed to death today. Police were without a clue to the assailant and unable to establish a motive for the murders.

The bodies of the farmer, his wife, daughter and son were found by an employee of a creamery, who went to the home to see why cream had not been delivered at the plant.

The dead: James Husted Ger-mond, 47; Mrs. Mabel Gregory Ger-mond, 47; Bernice, 18; Raymond, 10.

The time of the slayings was fixed by authorities as late afternoon or evening Wednesday.

Scene Reconstructed Each of the four had been stabbed over the heart with a blade apparently an inch broad. The knife was not found. Authorities, reconstructing the scene, believed the assailant had rapped at the kitchen door of the farm house and stabbed Mrs. Germond as she opened the door. Mrs. Germond fell and the slayer apparently had stepped into the room, and, pursuing the daughter to a corner, stabbed her.

Leaving the house, police thought, the slayer met Germond and his son in front of the wagon house, killing them and dragging their bodies into that building. The doors of the building had been closed to conceal the bodies of the father and son.

With Brother Wednesday Germond left the farm of his brother, nearby, with a truck load of feed about 4 p. m. Wednesday.
The truck was found today near the wagon house, with the ignition turned off. It was believed Ger-mond and his son had just driven into the yard when the slayer appeared from the farm house.

Unemployed Here To Sell Apples on Streets PERMITS have been issued by city officials to a number of unemployed Marionites to sell apples at uptown street intersections. Each person selling apples is assigned an intersection and given a card on which is printed "Help the unemployed. Buy an apple.
Five cents."

The plan was adopted by city officials after it had been proven satisfactory in other cities, Mayor L. Don Jones said today. At once today, three unemployed men, having a number of apples, were assigned under these permits, and a number more will be similarly employed soon.

JUDGE RULES
IN RAICHLEY
ESTATE CASE

Scofield of Common Pleas Court Upholds Gast
Decision.

ATTORNEY FEES ILLEGAL

Exceptions Filed by Marion Masonic Temple Co. to Executors' Account.

The decision of Judge Oscar Gast of probate court in allowing exceptions to the accounts of executors of the estate of the late Burr Raichley was upheld today by Judge George B. Scofield of the common pleas court.

The exceptions were made by the Marion Masonic Temple Co., chief beneficiary of the Raichley will, and concerned the payment by Harry J. Merchant and Clyde C.
Smith, executors, of $32,000 to attorneys who aided in settling the estate.

Payments Declared Illegal Judge Scofield's decision upholds that of Judge Gast who held that executors were not responsible for defending the will in the contest brought by a group of heirs and that payment of attorney fees for such defense was illegal.

Attorneys to whom the $32,000 was paid are John H. Bertram, James H. Eymon, Fred E. Guthrie, and Grant E. Mouser Jr., all of Marion, and A. K. Hall of Upper Sandusky.

Judge Gast held that part of the fee paid Eymon was legal inasmuch as he was legal advisor to the executors. Eymon's total fee was $7,748.33, of which Judge Gast ruled $3,571.33 to be legal.

Bertram received $8,500, Guthrie $8,500, Mouser $5,500 and Hall $2,000.

Fought Through Courts
The fees, with the exception of the $3,571.33 which Judge Gast ruled to be legal, were ordered by the court to be repaid to the estate, as well as part of the fees which the executors paid themselves. Each executor paid himself $6,121.33, of which $1,200 was ordered repaid to the estate.

The Raichley will case was fought in the federal court at Toledo, the federal district court of appeals and the United States supreme court, in all of which the attorneys employed to defend the will were successful in preventing it from being declared invalid.

The Marion Masonic Temple Co. was the principal beneficiary. It received real estate north of the post office on State street, which Raichley bequeathed for use as a site for a new lodge building as a memorial to his family.

Raichley made the will on Jan.
4, 1924, and died March 9, 1924.
The exceptions to payment of the fees were filed by LeRoy D. Zachman and the late James A. Knapp, officers of the Marion Masonic Temple Co.

finding of the suitcase further convinced him the teacher had been kidnaped and slain.

Miss Marriott disappeared two

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Nov. 28.— Gerald Nettleton, 20-year-old Toledo, O., aviator, today was laying plans for another try at the transcontinental record he narrowly missed when forced to leap from his plane in a parachute yesterday.

Nettleton indicated that he would purchase another airplane and repeat his attempt to shatter the present coast-to-coast junior flight record.

YOUNGEST IN CLUB
Nettleton's Parachute Drop Wins Place in "Caterpillar" Club.

By The Associated Press
SAN DIEGO, Calif., Nov. 28.— Instead of holding a new junior trans-continental flight record, Gerald Nettleton, 20-year-old Toledo, O., aviator, was enrolled today as the youngest member of the famed "Caterpillar club."

Nettleton made a 10,000 foot parachute drop to escape from a blinding rain and snow storm which encompassed his plane near here yesterday as he was within less than an hour of finishing his trans-continental flight.

He drifted gently to earth near a ranch house as his abandoned plane crashed a mile away. Except for being rain-soaked and extremely cold, Nettleton was unhurt. He made his way to a ranch house and topped off his adventure with a big Thanksgiving dinner.

"The weather was 'slippy'—rain fog and snow," said Nettleton. "I couldn't see 10 feet. The instruments 'froze' and since I couldn't see, there was only one thing to do and that was to jump."

"I fought the weather as long as I dared. I hated to leap, but that was my only alternative. So I levelled the plane off, cut the switch, closed the throttle and rolled out the door."

"The last I saw of the plane it was floating gently. I had fallen for several minutes and did not see the earth until less than 200 feet from it. That's how bad the weather was."

At the time young Nettleton leaped he had about 40 miles to go in his attempt to break the 36-hour, three minute record held by Stanley Boynton, 18, of Rockland, Maine.

HAND AGAIN TO FACE CHARGES

Third Trial Will Be Held in January; Charged with Robbery Complicity.

Special To The Star
BUCYRUS, Nov. 28.—Arthur Hand, who has been at liberty since two Crawford county juries failed to agree after deliberating on an indictment charging him with complicity in the $170,000 Galton Commercial bank robbery in 1927, will be given a third trial. Prosecutor J. D. Sears today indicated that he had uncovered new evidence in the case.

Hand, who at present is under a $5,000 bond, was tried for the first time while Attorney Louis Kreiter was county prosecutor, after he had been identified as one of the band of five robbers who held up the bank by one of the bank attendants while he was attending the trial of his brother, Wilbur Hand, now serving a term of 25 years in the Ohio state penitentiary. He was tried for the second time by Prosecutor J. D. Sears after he had taken office in 1929 and the jury again failed to agree after another session of trial when the blind witness of Hand, Trease Hartman, a witness stand in Hand's defense. It is understood that statements arising out of the escape of Wilbur Hand from a Washington, D. C., jail prior to his arrest in Ohio state penitentiary, bringing about the third trial.

Fanny was Washington. Fanny's home like a cat to cream, but she never got over the thrill of having her hair drawn and wearing her breakfast brought to her bedside.

Mr. Chamberlain told me last night that I was as ethereal as a marsh must be ought to see, for now I seemed Fanny one morning as she was pouring thick velvet cream on her oatmeal. "I suppose darling Juliette that it's a bit gross to enjoy food as much—but not at a party. One is supposed to have a good time at a party. And it's always a party to have breakfast in bed."

Their first days were spent in an orgy of shopping. David recently had made $1,000 on the stock exchange and given half of it to Fanny. Juliette suggested that she take charge of this, that she was a better bargainer than Fanny, but she never asked the price of anything and bought in the name of Fanny.

Fanny knew David would not like her to accept clothes from his cousin, but what could she do? She couldn't hurt Juliette's feelings, and the things were so lovely and anyway David didn't know what women's clothes cost. On the third evening of her stay Juliette gave a dinner for 40 with others in to dance.

The afternoon was glorious and Fanny strolled to be out in the sun, but she was hidden to stay. Fanny's first days were spent in an orgy of shopping. David recently had made $1,000 on the stock exchange and given half of it to Fanny.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The eastern football schedule for tomorrow lists only seven games but four of these can be ranked of first-rate importance.

Washington State's invasion of the east to meet Villanova seems to offer the most in the way of thrills. The Cougars captured the Pacific coast crown this year, beating Southern California en route to the title.

Other games will pit Temple against Drake, Carnegie Tech and Washington & Jefferson, Boston College and Holy Cross, Western Maryland and Muhlenberg, the Navy and George Washington, and Loyola of Maryland vs. Baltimore.

MANY AFTER HARDING STAMP

First One Canceled Here To Go to Former Secretary to President.

The first letter bearing the new redesigned Harding postage stamp to be canceled at the Marion post office, Dec. 1, will be addressed to George B. Christian, secretary to the late President Harding, from the postmaster general. It is the plan of Postmaster Crow to dispatch the letter special delivery from the local office at 5 a. m. to Columbus for cancellation with the eastbound air mail plane leaving Columbus at 1:15 p. m. for Harrisburg and connecting at that city with the railway mail service which leaves at 7:45 p. m. for Washington. The letter will arrive in Washington at 10:30 p. m. and will be delivered to Mr. Christian on the same date.

The second letter to be canceled will be addressed to Postmaster Crow's youngest daughter, Eunor, who is in San Francisco. The letter will leave Marion at 12:50 a. m. the morning of Dec. 1, for Chicago where it will connect with the air mail for San Francisco leaving Chicago at 8:30 a. m. The letter will be in San Francisco at 4:30 a. m. Tuesday and delivered by a special messenger to Miss Crow before school time.

Requests for first day cancellations are still coming in at the postoffice and each contains requests for purchases ranging from 25 cents to $30. A substitution has been arranged in the event the employees are kept busy filling the requests and placing the stamps on the letters. Many of the letters contain packages of addressed letters to be sent from the Marion office and a large number contain requests that the letters be signed by Postmaster Crow.

A total of 300,000 stamps have been received at the office and it is expected that by the date set for the first sale a large quantity of these will be sold.

TO BUY X-RAY FOR MARION HOSPITAL

City Board of Control To Take Bids for Equipment Until Dec. 12.

Bids for an X-ray machine for City hospital will be received by the city board of control until noon on Dec. 12. Safety Director T. E. Sumanstine announced today.

Purchase of the X-ray machine is a part of the 1936 improvement program of the city to be financed by bond issues.

The X-ray is regarded by Safety Director Sumanstine as a necessary piece of equipment at City hospital. Without it, the director points out, physicians and surgeons are required to remove patients from the hospital to private offices in order to obtain a photograph of a break or fracture.

Installation of the X-ray will also place the hospital within striking distance of recognition by the American College of Surgeons.

Jubilee's Partner

A Story of Boyhood Adventure

BY JUDITH M. LEWIS

THIS would be a holiday only for Thanksgiving coming to near the end of the week. I was glad when me and Jubilee woke up to think that there wasn't any school. Then I let Jubilee down and went downstairs and got my pajamas and washed myself out to milk and feed the dumbered brutes, and before I got done the whole bunch were in the barn and they were all talking at once about Thanks-giving and then we heard a lot of voices and hollering out in front and we all looked out of the barn door and there was a gang of rough necks going along the street snow-balling front doors. They would slam a few against a front door and when someone opened the door they would throw another one with snow-balls. They had just got to our house and it was my job that opened the front door to tell them out, but she got her mouth and eyes full of snow before she could say a word. And just then we found the big door of the barn, and when that bunch saw us come bolting out their mouths fell open and their eyes bulged out and they spun out like they were going to a fire and we were grabbing up snow and making snowballs as we took after them, and pretty soon our snowballs began to fly, and they were all talking at once about Thanks-giving and then we heard a lot of

and I don't believe they knew the end was there. It was just a wide flat place covered with snow, and the whole gang ran out on it, and we were snow-balled because it felt them up, and we all stopped at the edge, and when they saw that we were not chasing them they stopped in the middle and turned around and began to dash us to come on after them and we were just going to do it when all at once they let out a yell and they were standing in the water up to their waists. They were really at first and then they even it wasn't deep and went crashing and splashing over to the railroad track and crawled up it looking like drowned rats. When we got back the dogs had cleaned out the milk-pail, but my mother said to never mind.

My father had went to work. So he didn't go to Younesses with us. I have more fun when he's out along with a whole lot of "Don'ts" Younesses and I had a little table set by ourselves and we each tried to make the other take the best things to eat, and my teacher said we were her two most promising pupils. I told her I never promised her anything, and that made them all laugh. I broke a parlor lamp and fell downstairs and cut my lip on my teeth and had one of the best times I ever had. Younesses mother said "Boys would be boys" and my art said most of them tried to be little devils. One said she would like to have one once, and show them what was what. Younesses mother said "Well, nothing is impossible." It made my art sore. I don't know why.

All Chance of Pursuit Removed by Bandits

By The Associated Press
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 28—A bunch of the boys were whooping it up in a Curtsville pool room near here. It was payday. Suddenly six bandits, each armed with two pistols, bounded through a side door with the coarse demand: "Everybody stick 'em up!" Twenty-five patrons were lined against a wall and forced to disrobe. Trousers, shirts, shoes—all were "mixed," tied in bundles and scattered about the place. Then the bandits took $500 from their victims and fled.

AWAIT SENTENCE

Eight Soviet Engineers Sent to Death Decree, Is Indication

By The Associated Press
MOSCOW, Nov. 26.—While less than a week eight Soviet engineers, defendants who have pleaded guilty to high treason, will know the punishment to be meted out by the prosecutor for the highest of all crimes in the Soviet Union, treasonary activity.

On the face it appears the four judges who have sat smoking complacently and listened to the right defendant's confession of having passed intelligence and foreign information to the United States have passed sentences of death.

But Monday yesterday, in fact, defendant M. Kuznetsov, the fifth of the engineers to take the stand, that no direct charges involving "friendly foreign governments" could be made in such court, but would be heard later in a closed session.

One of the added virtues of most good national people is that they don't talk too much.

Stomach Troubles

That Are Dangerous (CUT THIS OUT)

Some forms of stomach trouble, if neglected, often lead to dangerous conditions—ulcers or cancers—then, a surgical operation is about the only hope.

For this reason, even the most simple stomach ailments should be given prompt and careful attention. So, don't neglect acid stomach, sourness, gas or bloating! And don't waste time with unknown or unreliable treatments. At the very first signs of distress, go to any good drug store and get some pure Bisurated Magnesia (powder or tablets). This special Magnesia Compound is safe and pleasant to take—quickly almost instantly effective and does not act as a laxative. Be sure and ask for BISURATED Magnesia for stomach troubles only.—Adv.

But sign all papers with precaution and guard against misrepresentation. A child born on this day should be noble, generous, popular and ambitious and should attain good position in life and attain great personal happiness.
